REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Member of Coventry Securities, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Coventry Securities, LLC (the “Company”) as of November 30, 2022 and the related notes (collectively referred to as the “financial statement”). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of November 30, 2022 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audit we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company’s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Marcum LLP

We have served as the Company’s auditor since 2014.

Coventry Securities, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements

November 30, 2022

1. Nature of Operations

Coventry Securities, LLC (the “Company”) is a limited liability company established in Delaware in 2009. The term of the Company shall continue in perpetuity unless the Company is dissolved in accordance with the provisions of its limited liability company agreement (the “Agreement”).

The Company was formed pursuant to the Delaware Limited Liability Company Law (the “Act”). Pursuant to the Agreement, the member of the Company shall not have any liability for the obligations or liabilities of the Company except to the extent of any non-waiverable provision of the Act.

There is one class of member interest in the Company. The sole member of the Company is a trust controlled by and for the benefit of members of a single family.

The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). The Company operates under a membership agreement with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) and is a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation. The Company’s principal activities consist of marketing its services as a broker-dealer and placement agent, registering and training its registered representatives, and providing services under an agreement with an affiliated entity (see Note 3).

The Company is affiliated with multiple entities through common ownership (see Note 3 for a description of related party transactions).

COVID-19

Management is currently evaluating the COVID-19 pandemic and its impact on the financial services industry and has concluded that while it is reasonably possible that the virus could have a negative effect on the Company's operations, the specific impact is not readily determinable as of the date of these financial statements. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Notes to Financial Statements (continued)

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions regarding the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

As of November 30, 2022, cash consists of noninterest-bearing accounts at a bank. Cash may exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation limits.

Due from an Affiliate

Due from an affiliate consists principally of amounts receivable under the Brokerage Services Agreement more fully described in Note 3, "Related Party Transactions."

Other Assets

Other assets consist principally of deposits with a regulatory agency and prepaid expenses.

Accrued Expenses

Accrued expenses consist principally of accrued professional fees.

Due to an Affiliate

Due to an affiliate consists principally of amounts payable under the Corporate Services Agreement more fully described in Note 3, "Related Party Transactions."

Income Taxes

The Company has elected S Corporation status under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and corresponding sections of state income tax laws. Under those provisions, the Company does not pay federal or state income taxes. As such, any income taxes are liabilities of the Company's member.

The Company has concluded there are no significant uncertain tax positions that would require recognition in the financial statements as of November 30, 2022. As of November 30, 2022, the Company's tax years ended November 30, 2019, 2020, 2021, and 2022 are subject to examination by the tax authorities.

Subsequent Events

Subsequent events through January 24, 2023, the date that the financial statements were available to be issued, have been evaluated for disclosure and recognition.

3. Related-Party Transactions

Brokerage Services Agreement

The Company provides brokerage services to an affiliated entity pursuant to the Brokerage Services Agreement. Amounts due under this agreement are settled in the normal course of the Company's business.

Corporate Services Agreement

Pursuant to the Corporate Services Agreement, an affiliated entity provides certain employees, officers, and facilities for the operations of the Company. Expenses are allocated by the affiliated entity based on time spent on the Company's operations by these employees and officers.

Obligations incurred in connection with this agreement are settled in the normal course of the Company's business.

4. Net Capital Requirement

As a registered broker-dealer in securities, the Company is subject to the SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule ("Rule 15c3-1"), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that aggregate indebtedness not exceed 1500% of net capital.

At November 30, 2022, the Company had net capital of $286,731, which was $281,731 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 18.43%.
